

OUR WAY IS MARKED

Today I heard the Lord say,
"The way is well marked. Come watch with Me."

FUNNY BLOOPER: Instead of typing in the word, "HEARD" I accidentally pressed paste instead. I had been working on some quotes about a pioneer movie I saw and the word pioneer was in the clipboard memory of my computer.

So this is what I typed:

PIONEER: The way is well marked.

WORD TO PONDER: PIONEER ALLEY

Like pioneers, My forerunners are quietly traveling the back roads, the ones less traveled.
They keep watch for My Word, sprinkled along My pathway of light. For the most part, these are narrow and hidden paths, canopied and protected. They may weave in and out of public flow, or they may suddenly disappear out of sight. They may also cross the current when you are not looking. These are slower roads, but more meaningful as they follow My footsteps in and out, and round about, within the world of fast lanes.
